Credit Searches

In order to process credit applications you make we will supply your personal information to credit reference agencies (CRAs) and they will give us information about you, such as about your financial history. We do this to assess creditworthiness and product suitability, check your identity, manage your account, trace and recover debts and prevent criminal activity.

We will also continue to exchange information about you with CRAs on an ongoing basis, including about your settled accounts and any debts not fully repaid on time. CRAs will share your information with other organisations. Your data will also be linked to the data of your spouse, any joint applicants or other financial associates. This may affect your ability to get credit.

The identities of the CRAs, and the ways in which they use and share personal information, are explained in more detail at:

- Transunion at transunion.co.uk/crain
- Equifax at equifax.co.uk/crain
- Experian at experian.co.uk/crain

They may retain information for up to 6 years after any credit agreement between us has ended. When we share this information all parties conform to industry standards.

Credit Reference Agencies also share information about people with many financial organisations.

Their records can tell us:

- whether you have kept up with paying your bills, rent or mortgage, and other debts such as loans, phone and internet contracts;
- your previous addresses;
- information on any businesses you may own or have owned or directed;
- whether you are financially linked to another person, for example by having a joint account or shared credit;
- whether you have changed your name;
- whether you have been a victim of fraud.

Where you are financially linked to another person their records can provide us with details about that person's credit agreements and financial circumstances.

They also use publicly available information to record information about people, including information from:

- The Royal Mail Postcode Finder and Address Finder;
- The Electoral Register;
- Companies House;
- The Accountant in Bankruptcy and other UK equivalents;
- The Insolvency Service and other UK equivalents;
- County Court Records.

This tells us, among other things:

- Your age, address and whereabouts;
- whether you are on the Electoral Register;
- whether you have been declared bankrupt;
- whether you are insolvent; and
- whether there are any County Court Judgements against you.

Credit Reference Agencies may also be Fraud Prevention Agencies.

We use this information to help us make sure we are lending our money responsibly and to help us decide whether a loan is appropriate for you. We cannot do this without:

- confirming your identity;
- verifying where you live;
- making sure what you have told us is accurate and true;
- checking whether you have overdue debts or other financial commitments; and
- confirming the number of your credit agreements and the balances outstanding together with your payment history.

We also have a duty to protect the Credit Union and the wider society against loss and crime, so we use and share Credit Reference Agency information:

- to identify, prevent and track fraud;
- to combat money laundering and other financial crime; and
- to help recover payment of unpaid debts.

We use information in this way to fulfil our contract to you, to meet our legal and regulatory responsibilities relating to responsible lending and financial crime, to protect the Credit Union from loss, to pursue our legitimate interests and to prevent crime.
